OUR CONDOLENCES

Our condolences to Chris Danen on the passing of his wife Joan L. Danen. Sincere sympathy to the entire family during this sad time.

GRASSY ISLAND RANGE LIGHTS

The January thaw. Mother nature teasing us. But we have a lot of snow to move, batteries to top off, and plans to make for the 2024 boating season. And perhaps a trip to someplace much warmer for a week or two.

During the meantime you might want to consider spending some time with the Grassy Island Range Lights. They are over 150 years old, have been refurbished, and stand proudly at the west end of our harbor. But they need constant attention. We are blessed with visitors during the warmer months. Accordingly, someone needs to make them clean and presentable. And someone needs to be present during open houses to host. The Tuesday nights between Spring and Fall dock days are lighthouse nights. That's when you can come on out and lend a hand. And Yacht Club members get hours for their efforts. Really!

A Lighthouse Keeper's Duty

Being a Lighthouse Keeper was one of the hardest jobs around a hundred years ago. Keepers worked long grueling hours and had to be willing to put their own lives in danger in order to keep others safe. They had to work in all kinds of weather. Being a Lighthouse Keeper was not a job for the faint of heart.

Keepers were responsible for taking care of the entire light station. If something broke they fixed it. If the tower needed to be painted, they painted it. If a window was shattered they replaced it. Lighthouse Keepers were mechanics, construction workers, and sailors all rolled into one. They were highly skilled and dedicated men and women who had put others before themselves.

A Lighthouse Keeper had many duties assigned to him. Some of these duties had to be done every day. Others were scheduled to be completed on a weekly, monthly, or yearly basis. No matter the date or time of day, a keeper always had something else to do. He was always busy.

As a Grassy Island Lighthouse Keeper you do not have to work as they did in the past, but still, many of the duties remain and need YOU to volunteer.
